Bebo Trattoria Finally Serving Pizza

At last, Roberto Donna's Italian wood-burning pizza oven is up and running at his Bebo Trattoria, which opened in Crystal City in November. Anyone who remembers the audible crackle of the crust when Julia Child and Donna sampled the pizza that he made on her TV show, "In Julia's Kitchen with Master Chefs," in 1985, knows that it was well worth the wait. You can now get the traditional margherita pie or choose from an extensive menu that offers combos like salsiccia e broccoli (tomato, mozzarella, broccoli rabe, pork sausage and garlic) and calzones. There are even dessert pies dressed with pineapple and orange marmalade or nutella. Take-out is available (703-412-5076).
